

WORKSHOP

THE ROLE OF SCIENCE IN STRENGTHENING AN INTEGRATED POLICY APPROACH

FOR OUR SEAS AND OCEANS II

Brussels, 29 May 2018, 09h30 to 13h30, Finance Tower Brussels

(Boulevard du Jardin Botanique, 50 bte 70 B-1000 Bruxelles)

09h30	Doors open
10h00	Welcome and Setting the scene by: Mr Matjaz Malgaj, European Commission and Dr. Canals, Co-Chair EEAC Working Group on Marine Affairs Where are we in Europe in relation to the 10% of coastal and marine areas that should be properly conserved and managed according to Aichi Target 11?
10h15	An introduction by: Camino Liqueste, European Commission, DG Environment Plenary knowledge exchange and debate
11h00	Coffee Break
11h15	How are marine protected areas effectively managed and monitored? An introduction by: Ferdinando Boero, EASAC Plenary knowledge exchange and debate
12h00	Regarding GES of marine waters, how do European countries inform and report to the EU, and how does the EU take advantage of the GES monitoring to report to the CBD about the different Aichi Targets?" Plenary knowledge exchange and debate
12h45	Wrap-Up and next step
13h00	Light Lunch