

WORKSHOP

THE ROLE OF SCIENCE IN STRENGTHENING AN INTEGRATED POLICY APPROACH

FOR OUR SEAS AND OCEANS II

Brussels, 29 May 2018, 09h30 to 13h30, Delegation of the Government of Catalonia to the EU
(Wetstraat 227, 1000 Brussel)

09h30	Doors open
10h00	Welcome and Setting the scene By Mr. Delgado Rosa, European Commission and Dr. Canals, Member of the Council for the Sustainable Development of Catalonia
10h15	Where are we in Europe in relation to the 10% of coastal and marine areas that should be properly conserved and managed according to Aichi Target 11? An introduction by: Fotios Papoulias, European Commission, DG Environment Plenary knowledge exchange and debate
11h00	Coffee Break
11h15	How are marine protected areas effectively managed and monitored? An introduction by: Daniel van Assche, European External Action Service Plenary knowledge exchange and debate
12h00	Regarding GES of marine areas, how do European countries inform and report to the EU, and how does the EU report to the CBD? An introduction by: Johnny Reker, European Environment Agency Plenary knowledge exchange and debate
12h45	Wrap-Up and next step
13h00	Light Lunch