

Tentative Programme

26 June 2018

Herman Teirlinck Building, Havenlaan 88, 1000 Brussel

10h30 to 15h00

10h30	Doors open
11h00	Introduction Welcome by EEAC Chairman Arnau Queralt I Bassa
11h10	Setting the scene: WFD current state of affairs and what's next? Jan Verheeke, Chairman of the EEAC Working Group on Fresh Water Affairs
	Introduction and plenary debate
11h30	Central question: Should EU-Member-States get more time and/or spent money to conceive and implement the measures to achieve GES within the framework of the WFD?
12h00	Coffee Break
12h15	Introduction and plenary debate Statement: Economic thinking should have been more central in the implementation practices of the Member-States; Statement: The systems thinking of the WFD should have transformed more thoroughly the water policies of Member-States.
13h15	Light Lunch
14h00	Central Question: What needs to be done to reach the good status in 2027 to the latest? And what would be the future of the WFD if this status have not been met by 2027?
14h30	Conclusions and Wrap-up