

EEAC-IEEP joint webinar

Towards net-zero: sound policies need science

20 September 2021

09h30 – 11h00 CET

09h30 Opening by Céline Charveriat, Director of IEEP and Arnau Queralt-Bassa, Chairman of the EEAC Network

Session 1 – Fit for 55: What has been proposed and what is the role of scientific advice in recent European climate policy initiatives?

09h40 Jytte Guteland, MEP, rapporteur for the EU Climate Law (TBC)

09h50 Christina Moberg, President of EASAC (TBC)

10h00 Elisa Giannelli, Policy Advisor, E3G

10h10 Questions & Answers

Session 2 – How can scientific advice further support the road to 55 and net-zero: The case of advisory bodies, modelling studies and Farm2Fork

10h25 François Dejean, head of CET1- Mitigation, Energy and Transport, EEA

10h35 Peter Møllgaard, Chairman of the Danish Council on Climate Change

10h45 Pierre-Marie Aubert, IDDRI

10h55 Questions & Answers

11h10 Concluding remarks